Borrower Consent to Access and Share Information

To complete your loan transaction, we'll need to access and share information related to the loan with third parties. Use this form to provide your consent to access and share this information.

Consent to access information from third parties

I authorize third parties to provide relevant information and documentation requested to:

- Wells Fargo
- Any other lender I have a mortgage with that may require subordination
- Any potential investor or insurer of this loan

The information may include, but is not limited to:

- Employment and income history
- Bank, money market, and other account balances
- Credit history
- Copies of income tax returns

The source of the information may include, but is not limited to:

- Credit bureaus
- Banks and other financial institutions
- Current and former employers
- Federal or state records, including State Employment Security Agency (SESA) records*
- Other sources as needed

Consent to share information with third parties

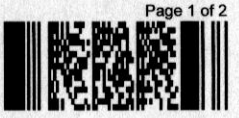
I understand Wells Fargo will share information with third parties as needed to fulfill their roles in the loan process:

1. Third parties involved in processing my loan application. Wells Fargo will share information, as necessary, with third parties in order to complete my loan transaction. These parties may include settlement agents, title companies, and closing attorneys.
2. Third parties representing me. Wells Fargo will share information with third parties representing me, as identified by me. These may include my real estate agent, financial advisor, power of attorney, or other person who has a legal responsibility to represent my interests.
3. Third parties connected with this transaction. Wells Fargo will share loan status and credit approval information with my builder if I provide permission. If I would like Wells Fargo to share my loan status, loan details, or other information with other third parties, I will need to provide separate permission. This should include the name of the third party, the purpose of the sharing, what I want Wells Fargo to share, and if applicable, instructions on how I may revoke the permission.

* Access to employment and income history from federal or state records, including SESA records, is effective for one year, unless limited by state law. In this case, the authorization remains in effect for the maximum period allowed by state law up to one year.



Consent to use and share tax return information with third parties

I understand, acknowledge, and agree that Wells Fargo and other third party loan participants can obtain, use and share my tax return information for purposes of:

- Making an offer on a property
- Originating, maintaining, managing, monitoring, servicing, selling, insuring, and securitizing a loan
- Marketing
- Use as permitted by applicable laws, including state and federal privacy and data security laws

Wells Fargo includes their affiliates, agents, service providers and any of their successors and assigns. Other third party loan participants includes any actual or potential owners of a loan resulting from my loan application, or acquirers of any beneficial or other interest in my loan, any mortgage insurer, guarantor, any servicers or service providers for these parties and any of their successors and assigns.
