Thank you. By the way, I realize that you must probably have to send encrypted emails, but Wells Fargo blocks my ability to connect to the HHSC server. It's a long story, but I am actually responding to you from my personal computer from my personal email address, rsteinberg@austinchronicle.com

Tacolya would probably be able to best answer that. I know PAL puts together lots of different things for our kids and most are normally in the Austin area. I wouldn't think school year mattered that much with it.

Thank you for helping with this!
